

Curriculum vitae

Name: Hendrik Zipse

16.11.1962 born in in Heidelberg/Germany

10/1982 - 8/1984 and
10/1985 - 3/1989 Chemistry studies at the TH Darmstadt

9/1984 - 9/1985 studium generale, University of Utah

5/1989 Diploma examination at the TH Darmstadt; subsequent Diploma thesis with Prof. B. Giese on "Semiempirical and Ab Initio Calculations of Radical Conformations"

5/1989 - 12/1991 Ph.D. student with Prof. B. Giese at the University of Basel;
research topic: "Stereochemistry of Intermolecular Addition-and Abstraction Reactions of Cyclic Radicals"

1/1992 - 7/1993 postdoctoral work with Prof. K. N. Houk, Department of Chemistry, UCLA, Los Angeles, USA
(supported by a DFG Research fellowship)

8/1993 - 11/1997 habilitation at the Inst. of Organic Chemistry, TU Berlin
(supported by a Liebig fellowship 8/1993 - 9/1995)

2/1998 - 10/1998 docent at the Institute of Organic Chemistry, TU Berlin

since 10/1998 associate professor of organic chemistry at the Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität in München

Awards and Fellowships

DFG research fellowship 1/1992 - 7/1993

Liebig fellowship 8/1993 - 9/1995

Fellowship of the Dr. Otto Röhm Memorial Foundation 1996

Prize of the Angewandten Chemie for the best lecture at the Chemiedozententagung 1997

Dozenten fellowship of the Fonds der Chemischen Industrie 1998

Carl-Duisberg-Memorial Prize of the German Chemical Society 2001

Thieme Journal Preis 2007

Teaching Abroad

Summer course "Applied Quantum Mechanics in Chemistry and Physics" at the Pontificia Universidad Catolica del Peru (August/September 2001 and 2004).

Visiting professor at the Institute for Materials Chemistry and Engineering, Kyushu University, Japan (January/March 2009).

JCEMolChem visiting professor at the Department of Chemistry, University of Ottawa, and Département de chimie, Université de Montréal, Canada (January/February 2011).

Visiting professor at the Institut Parisien de Chimie Moléculaire (IPCM), Université Pierre et Marie Curie (UPMC) in Paris, France (September 2011).
